

2017 Academic Advising and Transfer Network Conference

Friday, September 29, 2017, 8:30am – 4:00pm
Pōmaika'i Ballrooms (735 Iwilei Road, Honolulu)

GOALS

1. Inform advisors of the benefits to integrating career resources with academic advising
2. Provide advisors with tools and knowledge to encourage students to explore career aspirations earlier
3. Allow advisors to provide input to the High Impact Practices statement being drafted

AGENDA

- 8:00 Registration and breakfast
- 8:30 Welcome – David Lassner, President, UH System
- 9:00 Hawai'i Graduation Initiative Update and Link to GPS Direct – Donald Straney, Vice President for Academic Planning and Policy, UH System
- 9:30 Complete College America and Purpose First Overview – Dhanfu Elston, Vice President of Strategy, Guided Pathways and Purpose First, Complete College America
- 10:00 6-16 College and Career Guidance Program – Steve Schatz, Executive Director, Hawai'i P-20
- 10:15 Break
- 10:30 Developing a Purposeful Action Plan for Career-focused Advising – Wendy Troxel, Director, NACADA Center for Research at Kansas State University
- 12:00 Lunch
- 1:00 Career and Labor Market Data Tool – Peter Quigley, Associate Vice President for Academic Affairs, UHCC System
- 1:30 Review Draft National High Impact Practices Statement – Dale Allen, Principal Director, 1421 Transformation Group and Consultant to CCA for Purpose First
- 2:30 Review, Revise and Share Campus Action Plan – Wendy Troxel
- 3:45 Closing and next steps

Please complete an online evaluation: <http://aatnconference2017.weebly.com/evaluation.html>